

CLC Licence (conveyancing) - Candidates with a Law Degree obtained outside England and Wales wishing to apply for exemptions

To be entitled to exemption from the equivalent units on the Conveyancing Law and Practice Diploma Level 4 candidates who have achieved a Law Degree outside England and Wales, provided it is based on a jurisdiction derived from English common law, must provide evidence that as part of their Law Degree they have PASSED units equivalent to:

1. The English Legal System
2. Law of Contract
3. English Land Law

AND, candidates MUST also ensure their knowledge of the English conveyancing law and process meets the CLC's standard for Education and Training and PASS the remaining two units at level 4

4. Standard Conveyancing Transactions
5. Understanding Accounting Procedures for Conveyancing Transactions

BEFORE being able to progress onto and PASS the Conveyancing Law and Practice Diploma Level 6.

CLC Licence (probate) - Candidates with a Law Degree obtained outside England and Wales wishing to apply for exemptions

To be entitled to exemption from the equivalent units on the Probate Law and Practice Diploma Level 4 candidates who have achieved a Law Degree outside England and Wales, provided it is based on a jurisdiction derived from English common law, must provide evidence that as part of their Law Degree they have PASSED units equivalent to:

1. The English Legal System
2. Law of Contract
3. English Land Law

AND candidates MUST also ensure their knowledge of the English probate law and process meets the CLC's standard for Education and Training and PASS the remaining two units at Level 4.

4. Law of Wills, Succession and Grants of Representation
5. Understanding Accounting Procedures for Probate Transactions
- 6.

BEFORE being able to progress onto and PASS the Probate Law and Practice Diploma Level 6.