About Us

PDR Property Law Training Ltd was set up by Michelle Rickard in 2022. Michelle is the owner and Director of PDR Property Lawyers Ltd.

Michelle has worked in Conveyancing for over 30 years and qualified in 2007 as a Licensed Conveyancer.

Anne Hartley For over twenty years has been a trainer in law firms, training students for the Council for Licenced Conveyancers examinations, now SQA examinations, both level 4 through to level 6 and qualification as Licenced Conveyancer. Anne has also taught in further education, for training providers, colleges and for Open University on their law courses. Anne has been a Chief Examiner in Conveyancing for Cilex and presently is an external verifier for SQA. She is also a qualified assessor and internal verifier for SQA examinations both level 4 and level 6. Anne also has a Masters Degree LLM in advanced Property Law.

We understand the pressure of studying while working a full-time job and/or raising a family.

Courses offered by PDR Property Law Training Centre Ltd

Our programmes are delivered via hybrid learning, giving you the flexibility to study when it is convenient to you, but with the ongoing support of a personal tutor to help, guide and support you through your studies. PDR Property Law Training Centre supports learners nationwide using videoconferencing and tutorials, e-learning and tutorial support. We offer the Level 4 Conveyancing Technician course and the Level 6 Licensed Conveyancer course. At present we offer hybrid learning where learners are supported through personal tutorials, face to face teaching and video and e-learning support.
